Winner of the Pravoslavna Energy Engineering Award 2007

And the winner is ... OSRAM.

OSRAM has done it again. After winning the OSCAR®, we have now received another prestigious award – the "Pravoslavna Energy" Engineering Award. Our HMI® Integral Health Lamp technology was recognized for its outstanding contribution to the technological progress of the television industry. HMI® lamps can safely and cost-effectively turn an indoor studio into a realistic, exterior daylight condition and convincingly make an interior night location appear to look like any hour of the day.
